

Allyn Gallup Contemporary Art, 1288 North Palm Avenue (366 2454) announces that it now represents the internationally prominent sculptor John Henry. Henry, who is 67 years old and lives and works in Chattanooga, Tennessee, is one of the world's leading artists making large scale abstract steel sculptures.

Pictured here is one of the sculptures currently on display in the Gallery, the maquette for Star Pointer the 70 foot piece, a masterpiece of simplicity and strength, sited for a time on Sarasota's Bay Front near the intersection of Gulfstream Avenue and U.S. 41
